

Date	Name	Where	Reasons summary
	Principle
11/13/19	Citizen 2	Mr.Grandi's room	They thought it that prisons were helping some but hurting others. They thought the inmate were getting a little better but they weren't getting rehab to become clean or better person. They believed that adolescence should go to juvy because they should know right from wrong.
11/7/19	Inmate 1	Paper @ their facility	He got caught stealing cars and he doesn't feel as if his childhood affected the way he is now. He also wanted to become an NFL football player. When he was younger he wanted new clothes because his parents couldn't afford new clothes since his friends would always wear new clothes he felt left out.

	Psychologist
	Mr.Oswalt
11/7/19	Inmate 2	Paper @ their facility	He got convicted of retail theft and he wanted to be a teacher. He feels that his childhood did affect who he is now because he didn't have a family and they weren't there to support him. He also committed the crime because he never had enough money, but looking back, he doesn't feel like he needed to do that.
11/12/19	Citizen 1	600 wing student work area	They do believe that inmates should have more rights and they shouldn't be able to learn about highschool and college things because they missed out on the opportunity. They also believed that solitary confinement is hurting inmates because it's like treating humans like animals and humans should never be treated like animals.
11/20/19	Ex felon/convict	His house	He said it was an unforgettable time and he was confined for those ears and it wasn't fun. He lead me to believe that the prisons didn't let him talk or interact with the other prisoners. When it comes to his childhood he feels that his childhood did affect how he grew up because when he grew up, it was a lot different than it is now.
